

Celebrate You! inside + out

KUDOS

"I would like to commend you for creating a piece of literature to address important issues that young Canadians face every day, such as bullying and self-esteem."

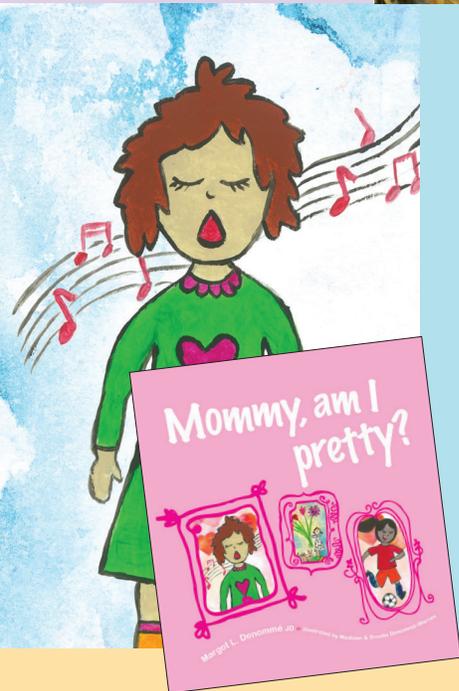

- LIZ SANDALS
ONTARIO MINISTER OF EDUCATION

"Margot's thoughtful and engaging interactive discussion while sharing her book really resonated with our students.

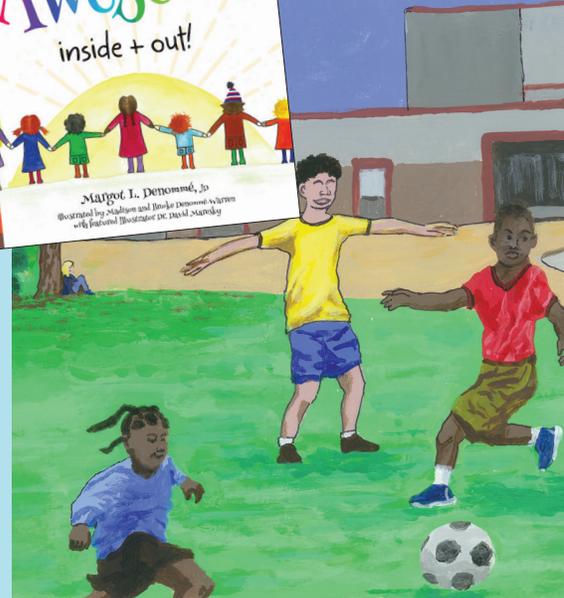

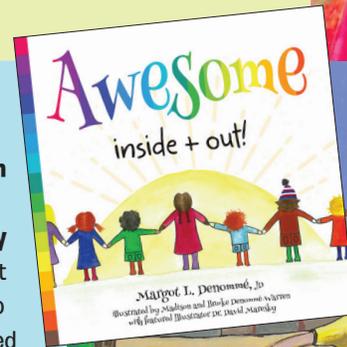

Mommy, am I pretty? is a beautifully illustrated story with a timeless and powerful message. It is a welcome addition to our school library!"

T. CAMPBELL
TEACHER-LIBRARIAN, DCDSB

Margot's book Awesome Inside + Out! speaks volumes in terms of being your best self. When Margot came to our class to read her book, many students were instantly connected to her and to the important messages about self-esteem, confidence, and being comfortable with who you are in relation to other people and situations. They loved repeating the tag line, "You are Awesome!" which appeared as a reminder of how beautiful people really are if they stay true to themselves. My students loved having her in our class, her positive outlook on life is infectious.

- SHARMILA XAVIER
GRADE 1/2 TEACHER, NELSON MANDELA PARK PUBLIC
SCHOOL, REGENT PARK, TORONTO

"Through the thoughtful dialogue and the beautiful, brightly coloured illustrations, the answer to this timeless question, "Mommy, am I pretty?" is answered in a spiritual sense rather than a physical one. The text is a glorious reminder that good citizenship and social character are paramount to personal beauty."

"We're loving the children's book "Mommy, am I pretty?" by Margot Denommé. A beautiful read that instills the valuable lesson that real beauty lies with-in. A must-read."

- DOVE (DOVE SELF-ESTEEM FUND)

"Your book and inspirational words resonated with the girls...Today's girls face increasing pressures that affect their body image and self-esteem. Your motivational message was both empowering and refreshing."
